

John Booren

LPL Financial Advisor

John joined Prosperion Financial Advisors, one of the top 20 largest financial advisory firms in the Denver area*, in 2012. He specializes in providing financial planning and independent, objective investment advice to families as they navigate through different stages and challenges in their lives. John works with clients to maximize their excess cash flow and align it with their priorities. He helps clients understand the lasting impact that their resources could have on their family over decades or even generations.

John published his first book, "Millionaire in the Making," in 2014. Available on Amazon, or downloadable on the Prosperion website at no cost, the book provides practical financial advice to those in their 20s and 30s who want to build a solid financial foundation.

A Colorado native, John graduated from Colorado State University where he studied financial planning. An ice hockey player at Regis Jesuit High School, John went back as a volunteer coach to his former team, helping them win the 2015 National Championship and 2016 State Championship. John is also a regular guest speaker at his alma mater teaching high school students the importance of personal finance throughout their lives.

John and his wife Malorie live in Parker, with their son, Henrik.
